talks and dialogues

We are the New Move Network 2015-16, a consortium of independent dance artists in partnership with key stakeholders the Centre of Contemporary Arts Cairns, Ausdance Qld, and James Cook University and Nintiringanyi Cultural Training Centre in a bid to stimulate sustainability and market development opportunities for contemporary expression in Northern Australia.

Please join us for a delightful day of informal dialogue interspersed with CIAF (Cairns Indigenous Art Fair) performance experiences. On Saturday 1 Aug 2015 we are hosting a small and significant gathering of expertise with the aim of informed discussion. We've invited you because of your passion, knowledge, experience, commitment and capacity to challenge, inspire, and inform the sector. We ask that you provide a context for what you do, what's trending, and imagine what we could do together to support the ecology.

So what can you expect on the day? An intimate enjoyable journey. We'll start the day in Café Paradisio at CoCA. The group will consist of Marilyn Miller (CIAF, Ausdance National, producer), Carl Sciberras (Form), Bradley Chatfield and Debbie Wilks (ACPA), Charles Wiles (CoCA), Ruth Hodgman (JWCoCA), Ann McLean (Ausdance Qld), Russell Milledge (JCU, Bonemap), Rebecca Youdell (Bonemap, KickArts, NMN coordinator), Pauline Lampton (Biddigal Performing Arts).

Please bring your portable device (laptop, phone, tablet to show images / video / documentation to share some context for what you do. We'll then take a stroll to where the performances are happening, walking four blocks along the pictureque esplanade through engaging public art, so wear comfortable shoes. We'll then be experiencing performances and chatting throughout the day. Please let us know any dietary requirements you may have. The adventure starts at the Centre of Contemporary Arts Cairns, 96 Abbott Street. See the red bits below and look forward to meeting you there. More info: Rebecca Youdell rtn@bonemap.com
